NUMBER 157

A local business man has been conducting a private "survey" to determine what amount of income per month people would ask if they had their homes paid for, all other obligations met, and could just retire.

The idea for the "survey" came from a verse in a trade publication received by the local retailer, in which the writer of the verse expressed a longing for just such a situation: to reach a point where he could get away from business and be assured of an income for the rest of his life.

The local business man reports that of the several people he has put the question to, the amount of income desired has varied from $75 per month to $300 per month, with the larger number of persons expressing a wish for somewhere between $150 and $200 per month.

The man who would take $75 per month indicated that he looked forward with more genuine pleasure to receiving that amount of money than was the case with the man who would take $300 per month; and, says, the local business man, the tendency of the group was to wish for a larger amount of money in retirement than they are receiving for their present employment.

Miss Elsie Hassler and Miss Ruth Jones are among the teachers of the county attending summer sessions. They are at an Jose State Teachers' College.

Miss Florence Griggs has engaged S. B. Roberson to erect a new residence for her in Bungalow Terrace.

"Bonehead English" will be the fate of some applicants for admission to the University of California but we know of two high school graduates who have passed their "Subject A" tests. Of course, there are others, but two we have heard of are Barbara Smith and Albert Frey. Barbara will major in English and dramatics and Albert has his heart set on being a dentist.

John Lawson, of Lake Valley, one of the candidates for Assemblyman in the approaching election, was a caller in Placerville Thursday afternoon.

Robert Beard was among the Fair-play residents in Placerville on Friday.

ARSON SEEN IN TWO FIRES

Hotel At Capital, Warehouse At San Francisco Damaged By Incendiary Flames

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Police detective John Gabrielli today was credited with saving the lives of 20 guests at the Clark Hotel when he ran through the burning three-story building to awaken sleepers about midnight.

Gabrielli was nearly trapped himself by the spreading flames.

Fire Chief Michael Murphy said the work of an arsonist was indicated when the fire seemed to shoot up simultaneously from several points.

$200,000 DAMAGE

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—A fire-alarm fire which raged in a large warehouse of the Southern Pacific railroad last night and early today, causing an estimated $200,000 loss and injuring nine firemen, was the work of an arsonist, according to fire marshal Frank Kelly.

"This is the third warehouse fire in three days," said Kelly. "That can't be coincidence. In this case, we know the fire was started in oil soaked waste in the center of the building."

"Snow White" Here Sunday

Empire Theater Shows Disney Triumph For Three Days; New Bill Saturday

Walt Disney's "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," a full-length technical color feature picture, opens a three-day run at the Empire Theater on Sunday.

"Cocoanut Grove," the current feature, ends tonight and on Saturday there will be an entirely new show for one day only featuring Peter Lorre in another of the detective series, "Mr. Moto Takes a Chance."

Sunday brings "Snow White," the story from Grimm's Fairy Tales.

Those seven tiny, active, stunted fellows you see digging diamonds, dancing, and forming a fighting guard of the pretty little Princess seem very real and interesting in their whimsical way.

Many peasants believed absolutely that the dwarfs really existed, and would even swear they had seen the little chaps going to their task of unearthing gems from fairy mines at early dawn, or returning to their mountain homes at sunset.

It was from such villagers that Jacob and Wilhelm obtained their famous Grimm's Fairy Tales, from which the Disney film is adapted. Rural superstitions have always credited the Hartz Mountains with being the favorite haunt of spirits and fairies, both good and bad. Among the good ones are the elves who protect the Princess in "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

9 CONTRACTORS CITED BY REGISTRAR ON LICENSES

SACRAMENTO—Nine Sacramento district contractors were today notified to cease contracting by State Registrar Arthur Alber, as a result of decisions revoking the licenses of three, and suspension of the licenses of three for from 90 days to six months and of three more for indeterminate periods.

The contractors whose licenses were revoked were: Chas. R. Butler of 309 25th Street, Sacramento; Schott and Marten (H. W. Schott and W. E. Marten) of 1419 P Street, Sacramento; and Robert A. Black of Sacramento and El Dorado. Schott and Marten were decorating contractors, Butler and Black both plastering operators.

Clash Of Authority Bad For Cabby

REGINA, Sask. (UP)—Whether to obey the law and be arrested, or to refuse and meet the same end, was the perplexing situation which faced Guy Shirley, Regina taxicab driver.

Shirley was driving four Royal Canadian Mounted Police constables back to their barracks. Time was short before their late leave was to expire.

"Step on it," the constables ordered. Shirley sped toward the barracks.

A Regina city constable stopped the speeding auto. The following day, Shirley paid $4 and costs for speeding.

ACCUSED—J. Paul Bathelt, 25, a dapper New York broker, charged in Northampton, Mass., with slaying of a man whose cement-encased body was recovered from the Connecticut river. Police believed the body was that of Charles Morris, race track follower.

STORE TRANSFER IS EFFECTIVE MONDAY

Emil Pardi Hopes To Take Vacation Of Several Months Later In Summer

The transfer of Pardi's Grocery from the management of Emil Pardi to the management of George K. Fausel, will be effective Monday, July 11th, Mr. Pardi announced Friday.

Mr. Pardi stated that the entire business is being sold, the grocery as well as the meat market.

"Later in the summer I hope to be able to take a vacation of three or four months," Mr. Pardi said.

The Pardi Grocery was established in 1930 and was first located in the store quarters immediately adjoining the present location. The need for larger quarters resulted in the store's removal to the present location and the addition of a meat market.

Prior to engaging in the grocery business on his own, Mr. Pardi had been employed in Placerville by J. P. Limpensel, and by Joseph Quigley, and following his return from World War service was manager for S. G. Beach in the Modern Grocery. Subsequently he also was engaged in business in the Bay District.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mariner arrived Thursday from Lakeport to spend about two months at the summer cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Frey, near Kyburz. Mr. and Mrs. Mariner are uncle and aunt of Mr. Frey.

F. D. R. BEGINS SPEAKING TOUR

100,000 Hear Opening Address At Ohio Celebration Of Westward Pioneering

MARIETTA, O. (UP)—Under a blazing Ohio sun, President Roosevelt today called upon the American people to elect "forward-looking representatives to run their government."

A crowd estimated at 100,000 hailed the chief executive in historic Muskingum Park here as he fired the first shot in his nationwide offensive on those battle-fronts where the philosophy of the new deal is being challenged in primary contests.

Flanked by opposing democratic candidates for the senate—former Governor George White and Senator Robert J. Bulkley, an old Harvard classmate—Mr. Roosevelt specifically paid tribute to Bulkley for his work in projecting administration reforms, referring to him affectionately as "Bob."

The President, offering a vigorous verbal defense of his policies, hailed his administration's "protective statutes" as mutual insurance companies that in effect were but a return to the healthy practices of mutual self-help of the early settlers of the northwest.

His speech was in connection with the 150th anniversary celebration of the settling of the northwest territory.

Merchants At Home Sunday

Bartletts End Regular Schedule At Roseville Against Tigers

The Merchants of the Foothill Baseball League return to the home field Sunday to meet the league-leading Folsom Club at Marcus P. Bennett, Jr. Memorial Park in their first clash in the second half of the league play.

The Bartletts play at Roseville in the Placer-Nevada League, against the Roseville Tigers.

This week's round of games in the P-N League marks the end of the regular fourteen-week schedule in the circuit, but there will be additional games played since nearly all clubs in the league have games postponed from earlier in the season, resulting from unfavorable weather and other causes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Nelson were representing Garden Valley in the county seat on Friday.

MEDICAL LEADERS FOR EARL WARREN'S CANDIDACY

Outstanding State Medical leaders joined yesterday in non-partisan support of the candidacy of Earl Warren for Attorney General.

"The San Diego County Medical Society," writes Dr. Willard H. Newman, secretary, "wishes to assure you of its support in your candidacy for the office of Attorney General."

Simultaneously, Dr. Louis A. Packard, Bakersfield, counselor of the California Medical Association announces: "I am sure not only the medical profession of Kern County but many others will be very happy to assist."

Further support from the medical profession came last week when a dozen members of the State Association, meeting in San Francisco, joined some 350 Republican, Democratic and Progressive lawyers in a Warren lunch arranged by the Lawyers Non-Partisan Committee.

6 SIGHTED ON COLORADO

River Expedition Signals By "Calisthenics" That No Help Is Needed

LEE'S FERRY, Ariz., (UP)—Six members of an expedition down the turbulent Colorado River were reported "safe and sound" today, drifting toward Lee's Ferry for a scheduled stop.

A U. S. Coast Guard searching plane from El Paso flew up the river last night and reported sighting the party camped on dry land 20 miles upstream from this river outpost.

The pilots said they dropped three prepared notes along the banks of the river.

The first was: "If you are the scientific expedition from the University of Michigan, all persons lie down."

The pilots said all six persons lay down.

The second message said: "If everybody okay, raise your arms in a horizontal position."

All six raised their arms, the pilots said.

The third note said: "If you need food, everybody sit down."

No one sat down, the pilots said.

Airplane Crash Kills Woman

Two Injured, 7 Others Unhurt As Transport Falls 100 Feet Near Billings, Mont., Airport

BILLINGS, Mont., (UP)—A woman was killed, two men were injured and seven other persons escaped injury today when a big Northwest Airlines plane crashed just after the take-off here on an eastbound flight.

The new Lockheed "Zephyr" had gained only about 100 feet altitude when the plane began losing speed and nosed down. It hit the earth about 1,000 yards from the airport runway and then careened crazily along the rough terrain until it crashed into a jack pine at the edge of a 75-foot canyon.

Mrs. N. S. Mackie of Evanston, Ill., died an hour and a half after the accident from a head injury suffered when she was thrown clear of the plane.

All "Zephyr" type planes of the line grounded last winter after one had crashed near Boxeman, Mont., with the loss of 10 lives. Inspectors discovered a "tail flutter" which presented a potential hazard. When this was changed the suspension was lifted and the line again used the planes.

LOTUS

The month of June has passed and was a very cool and pleasant one like that of 1937. The warmest day for the past month was 102 which was on the 23rd. As for July at this writing we are unable to say how the month will turn out but we predict some rains before the month is over. During the past month our bathing beach on the American river was very little used. No one seemed to care to take a swim owing to the cool month.

Mat Irvine and wife came up from their Oakland home on Friday and spent the weekend on Honey Moon hill. Beryl McKenney, and her husband, Al, who came up from Sacramento with Walter and Ballard Stahlman, also E. J., Jr. All spent the Fourth at the mine returning to their homes late Monday evening.

Loring White, vegetable and fruit inspector, came up from Shafter where he is at present inspecting potatoes, on Friday last and spent the weekend, also the Fourth, with his parents, Dr. A. L. White and wife, returning on Monday evening to be back to his duties for Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Wilma Armstrong, and son Tom, also Mrs. June Mann and her brother Harry Johnson of the Webber Creek district, and Jim Fisk of Rescue, the electrician, were among those seen on our streets the past week.

Freeman Liddell, wife and two children, came over from Long Barn near Sonora and spent a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Pountain, parents of Mrs. Liddell. They returned to Long Barn Monday evening.

Sheriff George M. Smith, accompanied by his wife, were in our town Sunday evening on official business from Placerville. George was doing a little electioneering outside of his office duties.

Eddie Fenske and wife came up from Richmond and spent the weekend and the Fourth with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Fenske, returning to his work Monday evening.

Horace Dunn, of Placerville, was in our town Sunday morning getting some material for building steps at his home. Dunn was formerly mail carrier from Placerville to Grizzly Flat but was let out on his contract. A Mr. Knapp who got the contract for the mail route is now on duty for the next four years. Lee Hopper, a former resident, and who left Lotus over three years ago, spent the 4th in our town, with his wife and son, and Donald Stone. Hop, as we all call him, got married since he left here and brought his wife with him to show the lady to his friends. Lee is engaged in the timber business at Laytonville, Mendocino county.

The Fourth of July was quietly spent in our town, no one going anywhere from their homes. Most every year the day is celebrated somewhere in our county, but this year nothing was doing in Georgetown, Placerville or Coloma and everyone had to spend the day at their homes.

Wylie Harding, special field agent for the Fireman's Fund Insurance Co., came up from his Sacramento office on Tuesday last to look at some risks and make the rates on them for the company. He spent a short time with Charlie Rasmussen, the company agent here.

Dudley Stevenson and wife, who have spent the past two months at Spanish Dry Diggings near Greenwood where Dud was doing some mining, returned to their home here the past week. Juanita says the Diggings are a dry and lonesome place and she is glad to get back to Lotus.

Harry Landis and his brother Anthony of Orangevale spent a few hours in our town last Tuesday gathering up old relics for the centennial celebration to be held in Sacramento in 1939. Charlie Rice spent the past week up at Peavine being employed by Henry Bacchi assisting in erecting buildings and making other improvements on their summer mountain home.

Joe Crocker of Placerville, representing the Caswell Coffee house, is now their salesman for El Dorado County selling and taking orders for the Caswell company products. He comes to our town every two weeks.

George Volz came up from San Francisco on Thursday last to stay with the Reasides until after the Fourth and while here will do a little fishing and enjoy some of our nice climate and get out of the fog in the bay cities for a few days.

Mrs. Lottie Galleher, Mary Bacchi, Mrs. Oviedo and Violet Reaside went down to Sacramento on Tuesday last on a shopping tour and took in the sights in the Capitol city.

Those seen in our town Sunday were Mrs. Jack Houston of Coloma, Hector Williamson, who is soon to leave for Rubicon Springs where he will construct a bridge, and Jim Sweeney, candidate for County Recorder. Jim talked a little politics among our town people. Suppose Jim forgot where the writer lives as he never showed up, anyway he will call later on when he has more time.

On Thursday night a birthday dinner was given at the Reaside home in honor of Mrs. Ella Morris of Coloma. Among those present were, Mrs. Maggie Veerkamp, Mrs. George Oviedo, Lottie Galleher, George Volz, Will Galleher, Miss Helen Reaside, Harry Reaside and the hostess, together with Aunt Ella. After dinner whist was played, first prize was won by birthday child and the "booby" prize went to Will Galleher. All enjoyed a very pleasant time and retired to their homes late in the evening.

Miss Evelyn Colwell, telephone girl in the Sacramento office, came up from that city and spent the Fourth with her aunt, Mrs. Lottie Galleher.

The many friends of Dr. A. L. White are glad he is up and about again and was seen driving his car up to Coloma the past few days.

Auto travel was very heavy on our streets on the Fourth. Cars traveling from early morn till late in the evening, going and coming both ways.

The Coloma Grange will give a candidate card party at the Community Hall in Coloma Saturday night and expect all the candidates for county offices to attend and ask a donation from each one towards buying prizes for the lucky winners to take home. Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake will be served at the end of the game and plenty of it at that.

A baby shower for Mrs. Juanita Stevenson was held at the home of Mrs. Reaside on Thursday, July 7th and those present were, Mrs. Andrew Marchini, Mrs. Alvin Marchini, Mrs. Oscar Fleming, of near Granite Hill, Mrs. D. M. Metcalfe, Mrs. G. C. Tidd, Mrs. Lottie Galleher, Mrs. Florence Hines, Mrs. Lydia Blodgett, Mrs. M. Fox, Miss Helen Reaside and Mrs. Harry Reaside. Many beautiful and useful gifts for the new comer were received. Games and cards were played and prizes were awarded the lucky ones and elegant refreshments concluded the afternoon entertainment.

V. C. Bryant who recently resigned his post as farm advisor of Shasta County has reconsidered and is still at work.

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, (UP)—The country which I have nicknamed La Belle France is said to be deeply concerned over the selection of Tony Galento as No. 1 heavyweight challenger by our National Boxing Association.

France's alarm is easy to understand. It recognizes in the N. B. A. an organization capable of making a serious bid for boxing's "daffiness championship," long a property of the Parisian body. The International Boxing Union.

France is very proud of the spade-bearded, absinth-drinking zanies who, from their headquarters in a wing of the building that houses the comedie Francaise, issue nonsensical edicts under the title of the I. B. U. Every true Frenchman applauded the I. B. U. a few years back when it named George Godfrey champion of the world, and Pierre Charles as his foremost challenger. George was hog-fat and wrestling for a living at the time, but that didn't bother the I. B. U.

Neither did the fact that Pierre Charles was well past a prime he never had. These rulings and dozens of others of a like nature, enabled the I. B. U., year after year, to brush aside all challenges to their silliness supremacy.

But now France is worried for its beloved I. B. U., and rightly so. Because any organization which can sit in solemn session and name Tony Galento as the No. 1 challenger for Joe Louis' title, and then call in reporters and ask them to broadcast the selection to the world, is no mean threat to honors for wackiness. And that is exactly what the profound gentlemen who are the National Boxing Association did.

They passed over Tommy Farr, the scar-faced Welshman who went the full 15 rounds against Louis without once hitting the floor. They passed over Max Baer, the former champion, who proved he was serious in his comeback by beating Farr. They passed over Bob Pastor, another who went all the way with Louis without getting hurt. And they ignored Max Schmeling, a man who has knocked out Louis just as often as Louis has knocked out him.

And how did the learned N. B. A. ers get around one Arturo Godoy, the rough and rugged heavyweight from Chile? Godoy is no picture fighter, but he certainly made a picture of Galento in their two fights. He beat Tony all over the place on each occasion, and would be a rousing bet to make it three straight.

I'm afraid that the N. B. A. boys (like a lot of the rest of us) have been taken in by Tony's none too tasteful ballyhoo. You know: The bartender who can outdrink any of his customers, the fighter who trains with a cigar in his mouth, the killer who can murder opponents with the same ease that he does the king's English, and all that sort of stuff.

And I'm not sure that I want a "white hope" who, when informed that he has been named No. 1 challenger, tucks this sign over the bar in his saloon:

"Bring on that bum, Louis."

KELSEY

The Bogus Mine has caused a sensation in the recent discovery of telluride ore assaying $5,976.23 per ton from a ledge three feet in width. The Bogus Mine is on the Morrison ranch, adjoining the Nick Martin land, both located west of the Eureka slate quarry land. Robert J. Henry and O. B. Franklin took option on these properties last August. The former was born and raised on the Nick Martin property, formerly the G. W. Henry homestead. He knew of the operations at the Bogus mine during the '90s when a shaft was run on the theory of its being a pocket proposition. Several pockets of high grade were recovered at that time and the work was abandoned owing to too much water. After securing the options Henry and Franklin, a mining engineer of the Southern Mines, with R. J. Nelson, of Georgetown, as financier, drove a tunnel 340 feet to tap the Bogus shaft which is said to be ninety feet deep. Several ledges were encountered, the last strike containing the values quoted above and signed by John MacMillan, assayer at the Veerkamp mine. The telluride ore is being shipped to the smelter at Shelby, in Contra Costa County.

The Morgan Mining Company's mine on the old Hackmill property in Kelsey district is operating with a recently installed hoist, mill and other equipment, all operated by electricity. Good values are reported in the drifts.

The Alhambra-Shumway Company is developing the Shumway mine at present while Wilbur Timm is developing the Atlanta, which also belongs to the group. Mr. Timm being the owner of the entire group of seven mines.

Hardy Brothers, of Kelsey, and John Grosjean have taken option on the Dalmatia property and on Monday began work.

Wylie, Helms and Edwards are operating the Jennie Hoffman mine, located north of the Gopher-Boulder mines.

Five families have moved to the Amazon mine, adjoining the old St. Lawrence mine on the south. These people are financed by an Oakland company. The Amazon mine, also known as the Burton mine, was bought by Chester Cole and his brother-in-law, C. Lengrin, both of whom are disabled war veterans. They are here recovering from illness engendered by overseas activity in the World War.

Bert Simmons, superintendent of the Eureka mine, located east of and adjoining the slate quarry property, is at present in San Diego making arrangements for a new pumping plant.
